Your contributions are deeply appreciated and tax deductible, as permitted by law. Proceeds from this year's event will help make it possible for us to sustain the unique and fragile environments at our three practice centers, train future farmers in sustainable practices, offer environmental education programs to school children, and support our outreach programs for the homeless, the incarcerated, and those in recovery. For more information about our programs or the Benefit Event, visit our website at www.sfzc.org, call (415) 354-0440 or email benefit@sfzc.org.
